Dr. Corinne Nichols-Wolfe, AP, DOM

Dr. Corinne Nichols-Wolfe graduated from the East West College of Natural Medicine in Sarasota, Florida where she received her Bachelor of Professional Health Sciences and her Master of Science in Oriental Medicine. Pursuing a passion for the roots of her medicine, she then studied for two years at the Institute of Classical Five Element Acupuncture in Santa Monica, California. Dr. Nichols-Wolfe holds certifications in Constitutional Facial Renewal and Advanced Constitutional Facial Acupuncture, having studied extensively with Mary Elizabeth Wakefield of the Chi-Akra Center. She is also schooled in the Mei Zen Cosmetic Acupuncture System, having received her training from Martha Lucas. Her studies most recently led her to an internship at Chengdu University of Traditional Chinese Medicine where she completed one month of rounds in the CDUTCM Teaching Hospital. Dr. Nichols-Wolfe currently holds a staff position at East West College of Natural Medicine where she supervises the students in the school's Community Clinic and teaches advanced/professional courses such as the Certification Course for Acupuncture Injection Therapy.

Dr. Nichols-Wolfe has focused her practice for the last five years on alternative approaches to aesthetic and anti-aging medicine. Building on her extensive aesthetic acupuncture training, she incorporates acupuncture injection therapy and bio-mesotherapy into both her facial rejuvenation and body contouring aesthetic protocols. Her practice incorporates Traditional Chinese Medicine, Classical 5 Element Acupuncture, Chinese Herbs, Nutraceuticals, Homeopathics and Physiological Regulating Medicine. Her belief is that beauty is merely health turned outward and her commitment is to aid her patients in both looking and feeling their best. Dr. Nichols-Wolfe maintains practices in Tampa, St. Petersburg and Sarasota, Florida.
